

"All in the Valley of Death Rode the Six Hundred." This photograph might serve as portraying the start of "The Charge of the Light Brigade" at Balaklava. It shows the British Dragoon Guards and the Deccan Horse in action. They were the first cavalry to be used against the Germans on the Western front. They reversed Balaklava and won with slight loss.

© Central News Photo Service

After the Storming of La Boisselle. The Royal Fusiliers were among the British troops which wrested La Boisselle, in the Somme section, from the Germans. Here they are celebrating their victory. Do they act like men who have dallied with death? War is like life. When we win the deal we smile.

© Central News Photo Service